My name is Zimon I am this room' s owner

My parents put some money into the overseas bank account.
My bank card and identification card are in the drawer the password is my birthday

If it is destiny, and you come to this room, everything here belongs to you. All the keys are under my bed Anything you see that might help you, go ahead and take it.

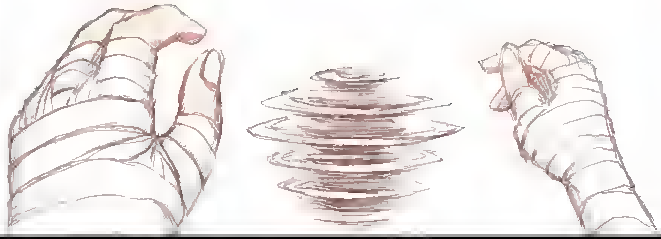
I love things that can spin



twistedmist.blogspot.com

I love to stack my books and shelves
I love to wash away the dirt that stuck on the toilet bowl I love the water that falls down Love to have no one around Love that bridge that has 119 beams

twistedmist.blogspot.com

Love to look at the steps below my feet

And the small road that has no one passing

Afraid of looking at a missing or abandon dog

Afraid of their gaze on me

Afraid of facing this world

THIS WORLD DOESN'T NEED ME

The floor that mother once lived

A total of 112 steps

This is my last secret...
